VOLUME CVII.--NO. 171. ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 18, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

They Stand Alone.

Standing out in bold relief, all alone, and as a conspicuous example of open, frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, over-worked, debilitated, nervous, "run-down," pain-racked women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous remedy for weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, all catarrhal affections whether of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, nasal passages, throat, bronchia, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as scrofulous and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicines bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain English. This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is the best guaranty of their merits. They cannot be classed as patent nor secret medicines for they are neither —being of known composition.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines for certain easily recognized diseases.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines, they being wholly compounded of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American forest plants. These are best and safest for the cure of most lingering, chronic diseases. Dr. R. V. Pierce can be consulted FREE, by addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y., and all communications are regarded as sacredly confidential.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff. But not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

BROTHERHOOD OF LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

There are fifty-four thousand locomotive engineers in the United States, Canada and Mexico, who stand together in a single brotherhood. They compose, perhaps, the most respected, dignified and effective labor organization in the world. Recently they met at Memphis by their delegates, and in wisdom and decorum remained in session for four weeks. No disagreements, no scandals, no threats, no foolishness came out of their close, sagacious and intelligent assembly.

An Iowa man, Warren Sanford Stone, is their chief. He is forty-six years old, hearty, candid and cool, and has pulled everything from a local freight to a limited. In a recent interview he said:

"The policy of the Brotherhood has been to mind its own business and to keep out of entangling alliances.

"That is an accurate statement of our position. We are condemned for our lack of sympathy and so on, but we reply. 'Look at our results.' We should be in trouble all the time if, for instance, we should refuse to haul 'unfair goods' or the products which come from factories, mines, etc., where there are strikes. We are constantly bettering our wages and conditions, and, therefore, point to our achievements as a justification for our policy."

"Can you order a strike?"

"No, but I can stop one if it is threatened. The weakness of nearly all organizations of labor lies in the initiative power given to general officers. Each subdivision in the Brotherhood has a committee of three to settle difficulties which arise within that jurisdiction. When that body fails the matter is taken to the general committee of adjustment, composed of the chairmen of all the subdivisions on that particular railroad system. If there is no agreement a grand officer is summoned and put in charge of the situation. The deadlock continuing, the grand chief states the case in plain English, prints it into a circular and sends a copy to every engineer. The engineer votes, over his own name, and returns the ballot to headquarters. No less than two-thirds of the membership can carry a strike, and even then the grand chief is empowered to veto it."

"You do not tolerate drunkenness?"

"Nether do we countenance insubordination nor incompetency. I also insist that engineers must pay their legitimate debts. I suppose we have men who drink while on duty, but when we find them out we drop them from the Brotherhood and inform their employers. It is up to the railroads then. If a Brotherhood man refuses to obey the orders of his superintendent or chief he is expelled forthwith. We say to all engineers: 'Do as you are told. If it is something you think you shouldn't do make complaint to us. We shall investigate the matter, and if you are in the right we shall stand by you. However, if you are guilty of insubordination you are outside of your rights and must leave the Brotherhood.'"

Try a little KODAL FOR DYSPEPSIA after your meals. Many stomachs are overworked to the point where they refuse to go further. Kodol digests your food and gives your stomach the rest it needs, while its reconstructive properties get the stomach back into working order. Kodol relieves flatulence, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, belching, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

DISLOYALTY IN RUSSIAN ARMY.

The Twentieth Century, formerly the St. Petersburg Russ, claims that the reports submitted by the commission of the general staff on the investigation of the disaffection in the army thus far show that 6 guard regiments, 26 line, 7 cavalry, 6 artillery and 5 sapper regiments are more or less affected by the revolutionary propaganda. In fact, the loyalty of any of these troops can no longer be depended upon.

The Czar has degraded the Seventh Cavalry, which recently mutinied at Tamboff, by taking away the imperial standard conferred on the regiment two years ago.

A second monument to the memory of the revolutionists who lost their lives during the recent uprising was erected at Mitau during the night in the public square. It bore a warning that death would be the punishment for anyone furnishing horses to remove it. Soldiers carted the monument away.

Considerable alarm has been caused by the inauguration of a strike of police in St. Petersburg. In two districts of the capital yesterday the policemen refused to appear for duty, and Monday night one squad, whose captain was lecturing them on declining to break up a meeting, threw down their arms and left the station.

The strike is ostensibly based on economic reasons, including an accounting of the men's savings, which, it is claimed, are withheld without interest. The authorities, however, declare that the strike was inspired by agitators.

According to dispatches from various sections of the empire, mobs are still engaged in slaying people and burning property. Russian peasant disorders are increasing in violence. Twenty estates in one district have been laid waste by torch and several proprietors killed. Attempted anti-Jewish outbreaks have been suppressed by the authorities.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the Great Source of Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 18, 1906.

THE OFFICIAL inquiry into the derailment of the American Line special train from Plymouth to London leaves no doubt as to the cause of the disaster at Salisbury, which was attended by such fatal consequences Search for any defect in the locomotive, such as a broken axle, and anything which might have been wrong with the track has proved futile. On the other hand, the testimony relative to speed proves to be unfortunately conclusive. The very general suspicion which was entertained at the outset, therefore, is now confirmed. The wreck was due to excessive speed. Generally speaking, the rolling stock in England is lighter than it is in the United States, and hence more liable to jump the track. It has been observed repeatedly in this country that in certain crises the Pullman coaches will stick to the rails when day coaches and smokers are displaced. The terrible accident at Salisbury will recall to many Americans anxiety they have experienced on English express trains. Tourists have often believed they encountered less danger in crossing the Atlantic than in their railway trips from Liverpool or Southampton to London. The steamer train from Liverpool to London is scheduled to make the run (201 miles) in less than four hours, and it passes through large cities at a rate of sixty miles an hour. A spreading rail, broken axle or any one of the many contingencies that could arise would bring certain death and injury to hundreds.

MID-SUMMER weather is now prevailing when high temperatures and humidity are bringing discomfort to both man and beast. It is always a critical period for the little ones who are in constant danger from arrows which fly thick and fast at this season. About one half of the infants born manage to avoid these shafts, or to escape with slight wounds. The other half, we are told, fall from the many infantile disorders which prevail during the heated term. It is therefore incumbent upon parents to exercise great care of their little ones during these critical periods, and to do so may require some thought and doubtless trouble. At the beginning of every summer rules concerning the care of infants are published. Many parents read the same and by following them ward off doctors' bills and probably funerals; but there is every reason to believe that some do not, and thereby make themselves in a measure responsible for the troubles which come upon their offspring. A large number of adults, by thoughtlessness, and often by tempting providence, pay severe penalties during the heated term. Over-eating, always dangerous, is especially so during the dog days, and should be strictly avoided. There is at present considerable sickness in Alexandria in the form of stomach disorders and accompanying headaches. While the cases so far have not developed into anything serious, these troubles may be precursors of others more grave should we fail to take proper precautions in eating and drinking.

THE GENERAL congress of socialists interparliamentary committees which opened in London yesterday morning under the presidency of James Keir Hardie, socialist Member of Parliament and chairman of the independent labor party, seems to have struck a frost. The first evidence of the weakness of the gathering was the expulsion of the newspaper men present. The attendance was not large. The Continent was represented by about twenty-five delegates, including a member of the Russian parliament. The general purpose seems to be to attempt to unify the aims of the socialists in the various parliaments. Neither Herr Bebel, the German socialist leader, nor M. Jaures, leader of the French socialists, was present. Several women delegates attended the session. A resolution was adopted changing the title of the organization to "socialist and labor interparliamentary committee."

THE republican Congressional committee has resolved to make the campaign for the next House upon the record of the Roosevelt administration and its success in securing such measures as the railroad rate, the meat inspection and the pure food acts. By this plan of campaign it is conceived that the solid phalanx of "stand-patters" in defense of the tarifi-fed trusts will not be disturbed in the next elections. The democrats will gladly meet their opponents on this ground. It was the democrats who supported the President in taking the initiative for every one of these popular measures. In the Senate the lead upon the railroad rate bill was surrendered to the democrats because of republican disagreements, as was clearly revealed by the Roosevelt-Tillman-Chandler controversy.

MANY OF the miners of the Pennsylvania region are becoming wearied of paying dues to maintain others in idleness and in the First District Convention of the United Mine Workers at Scranton yesterday a resolution was offered which violently criticised the entire management of the union and, had it passed, would have given the eight members of the district executive board and organizers pay only for the time actually spent in board meetings. The resolution, after a speech against it by Mr. John Mitchell, was defeated by a vote of 45 to 63, but the resolution is ominous and shows that the best of feeling does not exist between the officers and the rank and file of the miners, the latter seeming to realize that they alone are taxed to support walking delegates who do no real work.

ACCORDING to the court's decision there will be no two cent per mile railroad rate in Virginia for some time. And but few people thought there would be.

"Jail seeker" Gourdain, the Chicago man whose friends have temporarily interferred with his serving the four and a half years sentence passed upon him for conducting a lottery, spent a sleepless night thinking of schemes by which he can get himself back into the Federal penitentiary at Joliet, Illinois. The Chicago man says he is a convict and that his official name is "Number 9800". Shortly after ten o'clock, Gourdain appeared at the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court with a petition for a writ of mandamus upon Judge Grosscup, which he asked permission to file. Acting Clerk Maher expained that such a paper could be presented only in open court, and that there would be no opportunity for this until October. 9, when the court meets after the summer recess. Gourdain then inquired for the address of the nearest justice, and was referred to Justice William R. Day, at Canton, O. He was told, however, that a single justice could not act in the matter, as it was an original application, requiring the attention of the entire court. Undaunted by this unfavorable information, Gourdain announced his intention of telegraphing to Justice Day and asking for an appointment at Canton in the next day or two. Gourdain who said he has not eaten anything since Monday broke his fast today. He says his honor compels him to serve his jail sentence. Gourdain will leave for New York city at three o'clock and will make his headquarters at the Savoy Hotel. Tomorrow he will go to Naragansett Pier to see Justice White.

The War Department was advised this morning of the arrest in Chicago of Truman K. Hunt, the man who brought to this country the band of fifty odd Igorrote natives of the Phillippines and, after using them for exhibition purposes all over the United States, and Canada, abononed them to shift for themselves. Acting under instructions from the War Department Hunt has been formally charged by the authorities with withholding from the dog eating little Filipinos for fifteen months the salaries which he agreed to pay them in a formal contract and also with embezzling the sum of $1,000 from his charges, money they had made by selling souvenirs from their far away home.

The situation is not yet regarded by the medical authorities of the army as particularly serious.

Not the least important development in the Hartje divorce case in Pittsburg yesterday was the outline of the defense that was disclosed by the testimony of Miss Ida Scott, the 16 year-old sister of Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, who was put on the stand a few minutes before the adjournment of the case until tomorrow morning. From this testimony it was gathered for the first time what plan for accounting for the disputed love letters will be followed by Mrs. Hartje's attorneys. That she had written two or three envelopes addressed to "Tom" Madine, the coachman co-respondent, at the request of Annie Lutz, one of the maids, and that she also had given Annie sheets of her paper, were among the significant statements she made.

The strike at the Riverside Cotton Mills, at Danville, Monday, which was caused by the employment of 12 Germans to work in the mills, reached a climax yesterday when the foreigners, on coming to work, were stoned by the strikers and driven from the grounds. The officials of the Riverside Mills declare that the employment of the Germans was due to scarcity of labor, and it was not intended to supplant any of the old workmen.

NO TWO CENT RATE.

Judge Henry W. Holt, of the Corporation Court of Staunton, as stated yesterday handed down his decision in the case of the commonwealth against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for failure to place on sale on June 15, 1906, mileage books of 500 miles at two cents a mile, as required under the recently enacted Churchman law.

He finds that the act in question is in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and, therefore, void, and he ordered the proceeding dismissed.

There is no appeal on the part of the commonwealth. The opinion is under six heads.

The court declares that the claim that the statue is vague is untenable.

He finds that the statue is not defective in that it does not follow the language of the Constitution.

He denies that the legislature has been deprived of the rate-making power, holding that it has such power when not specifically restricted by the Constitution. It falls naturally within the domain of the legislature.

4. The constitutional requirement of the State that no rate shall be prescribed until at least 10 days' notice be given the carrier applies to the Corporation Commission, but does not apply to the legislature.

5. The court has no knowledge that the rates now in force have been approved by the Corporation Commission by acquiescence on the part of the commission.

6. In conclusion, it is claimed that the legislation in question violates that part of the federal constitution which forbids the taking of property without due process of law, and which guarantees to all persons the equal protection of the laws.

The court quotes approving many decisions, laying stress on a Michigan case, in which the court holds in unmistakable terms that legislation of this kind must be horizontal, applying alike to every ticket and to every individual.

Its reasoning applies with greater force, the court holds, when no maximum rate is fixed, then where it is, for if it is unlawful discrimination to leave purchasers of ordinary tickets subject to the general rate, then, a fortiori, it would be to subject them to the untrammeled powers of the railroads without even that protection which a maximum rate would throw around them.

YESTERDAY'S STORMS.

Heavy rains throughout western Pennsylvania during the past 48 hours have caused considerable damage, and in a number of places the showers were veritable cloudbursts. Over an inch was recorded as the precipitation. In Allegheny county the storms were particularly severe. In a number of the smaller towns the creeks and rivers were swollen to such a height that factories on their borders were obliged to close down because the water flooded the engine-rooms of the plants and extinguished the fires At West Etna the bar and plate mills of the Spang-Chalfant Company were closed down, throwing 600 men out of work. A bridge on the company's property was saved from washing away by placing a car of iron on it. The heavy concrete retaining walls of the Baltimore and Ohio roadbed, opposite the plant, were washed out. Throughout the entire county the creeks rose five and six feet in a few hours, washing sand on to trolley and railroad tracks and delaying traffic in many places. At Greensburg there was one death—that of a six year-old boy, who was carried away by a stream while trying to cross a footbridge.

With an official maximum of 87 degrees and street temperature nearly 10 degrees higher, New York suffered as severely from the heat, yesterday as at any time this summer, and before a refreshing shower in the afternoon brought relief three persons had perished from the combined heat and excessive humidity, and several scores were prostrated, some of whom may die. The thunder and wind storm of the afternoon was a severe one. Trees were uprooted in various sections of the city and several small boats in the bay were capsized, but without loss of life. The only fatality due to the storm was reported from Staten Island, where a man was killed by lightning.

Rain, amounting to a cloudburst in intensity swept Ohio and Belmont counties, W. Va., from midnight last night until 8 o'clock yesterday morning, causing damage amounting to many thousands of dollars. Water was from two to three feet deep in the streets of Wheeling and street car travel was blocked. Crops throughout Wheeling creek valley were washed off the hillsides, and many farmers saw their whole season's work ruined. Many small bridges were swept away. There were three washouts on railroads.

A tornado hit the Stanford Motor Works at Stanford, Conn., yesterday afternoon and tore off the roof, carrying with it the shafting. The whole mass, about 2,000 pounds in weight, was carried off the building some 50 feet. One piece of shafting 200 pounds in weight was carried 400 feet. Eight men were at work on the top floor, and they escaped injury by dodging beneath a long bench which was protected by a brick wall. Many marine engines and costly machinery are ruined.

Banner Year For Railroads.

According to a preliminary report of the Interstate Commerce Commission the gross earnings of the railroads of the United States, covering approximately 219,000 miles of road, will probably show for the fiscal year ended June 30th. an increase of 10 per cent over the $2,078,000,000 earned in 1905. This will prove a banner year for American railroads. The official figures will not be available for all the roads for some months yet, but the increase that has been shown month after month give reason to expect the 10 per cent increase.

In New Quarters.

Twenty clerks, stenographers and engineers of the Southern Railway arrived in Danville yesterday from Greensboro, N. C., from which place the offices of Assistant General Superintendent E. H. On the first of the month the car record office at Washington will be moved to Danville, which means an addition of between 15 or 20 men to the town.

Revolutionists to Attack Consulates?

St. Petersburg, July 18.—The Czar learns from Russians in Warsaw that revolutionaries plan to make attacks simultaneously on all the consulates, their object being to cause the intervention of the powers.

Vienna, July 18.—Advices received here from Cracow, Austria-Hungary, are to the effect that anarchy in Russian Poland is increasing, and that the officials are somewhat alarmed over the situation. A few instances of depredations committed by the "reds" are given. At Nikoljeff a mob attacked the cashier of a sugar factory in the street and after securing 30,000 roubles escaped. At Grenmkoff a number of revolutionists stormed a Catholic Church during services, and in the fight which followed between the revolutionists and members of the congregation two persons were killed and forty were injured. The revolutionists also still retain possession of a church in Cracow.

Tiflis, Trans Caucasus, July 18.—While the Chief of Police, Col. Maximoff, was passing the Georgian Nobles school today, a bomb was thrown at him from a window of the building. The bomb exploded near the Chief, seriously injuring him. Soldiers who were attracted to the scene by the noise of the explosion surrounded the building and fired a volley into it, killing the author of the outrage.

St. Petersburg, July 18.—The view is taken that the resolution passed by the Douma yesterday is nothing less than an appeal to the nation on the part of the Douma against the ministers and the crown. It is conceded on all sides that the resolution is almost certain to act as a revolutionary measure. The speakers who discussed the resolution yesterday likewise recognized the measure as being revolutionary in its nature. In this connection it is significant that the resolution was introduced following the shattering of the hopes of a constitutional ministry. The conservative papers today take the stand that the appeal to the people invites a fresh outbreak of the revolution and expresses the greatest alarm for the future. It is reported that the government will dissolve the Douma if the appeal is published. Messages have been pouring in today on the Minister of the Interior giving details of widespread agrarian disorders which seem to have broken out in every part of the empire. The trouble is more serious in the government of Voronesh than in other regions. There a district of 100 square miles has been reduced to ashes. The land owners have fled panic stricken to save their lives. The material losses as a result of the outbreaks are estimated at millions of roubles. The governor has brought in a force of Cossacks and dragoons, but the local authorities are powerless. Indescribable horrors have been perpetrated on numerous victims.

Stabbed His Father.

New York, July 18.—Conreid Schirmer, who all his life as husband and father has lived by the stern book of discipline, is hovering between life and death in the Harlem Hospital, as the result of a stab wound inflicted by his eldest son and namesake, Conreid, aged 19. The cause of the stabbing was Clara Lazarus, a pretty eighteen-year-old girl. When Schirmer discovered that his son was paying attentions to the girl, he forbade their meeting and declared that the young man should not marry until he reached his majority. The young people continued their courtship, however. Last night when at 11 o'clock Conreid had not returned home Schirmer went to the Lazarus home. He found Conreid there and attacked him and proceeded to give him a thumping for disobedience of orders. In the struggle young Conreid drew a pen knife and stabbed his father in the left side, inflicting a serious wound. The police then arrived and the young man was taken to the station house and the father was sent in an ambulance to the Harlem Hospital.

Hartje Divorce Case.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 18.—Miss Ida Scott this morning proved to be a star witness for her sister, Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, in the divorce suit instituted by the latter's husband, Augustus Hartje. Miss Scott was on the witness stand for the greater portion of the forenoon. She picked out a number of the letters figuring in the case as having been written on stationery belonging either to herself or one of her sisters. She swore that Annie Lutz, a maid, had been given this kind of letter paper and that she wrote letters quite frequently. Attorney J. Scott Ferguson, of Mr. Hartje's counsel, said at one point of the testimony, that it may be proved that Miss Ida Scott wrote the address on the envelope. If this is proved it will contradict the testimony of the experts that have tertified for Mr. Hartje.

The Arrest of Lawyer Gibson.

New York, July 18.—The arrest of Burton W. Gibson, a young Brooklyn lawyer, marks an important period in one of the most mysterious and baffling crimes New York has had in many a day. The coroner's jury in its verdict last night, after finding that Mrs. Kinnan came to her death at the hands of some person unknown, recommended that Lawyer Burton W. Gibson be held for further examination. Coroner McDonald immediately ordered Gibson's arrest, and held him in $25,000 bail. Gibson was unable to furnish the bond and was locked up in the Tombs over night. He was still in prison this morning and was visited by counsel. There are indications that the lawyers will today try to secure Gibson's release on a writ of habeas corpus on the claim that he is not charged with crime and that he is illegally deprived of his liberty. The case with its many unusual features is attracting much local attention.

Suicide of a Clerk.

Washington, July 18.—Mrs. Georgie H. Williams, aged 50 years, a clerk in the Treasury Department, was found dead in her apartment, 238 Delaware avenue, northeast, this morning with a rubber tube, connected with the gas jet, in her mouth. Despondency is supposed to have caused the act. She came here originally from Essex, Conn.

Chauffeur Dismissed.

London, July 18.—Nicholas Mori, chauffer for Whitelaw Reid, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, was summoned before the Barnet police court, today, on the charge of speeding his car over thirty miles an hour when he was driving Mr. Reid. A representative of the American Embassy in Mori's behalf, pleaded the privilege of the Ambassador. He quoted an act of 1706 exempting Ambassadors and their servants from arrest. The legal process and summons were then withdrawn.

Hearing Adjourned.

New York, July 18.—Supreme Court Justice McLean, today adjourned the hearing of argument in the application of counsel for Harry K. Thaw, who is in the Tombs of an indictment charging him with the murder of Stanford White, for a writ of prohibition, restraining the District Attorney and the grand jury from hearing any witnesses until tomorrow.

Within the week a commission may be appointed to inquire into the sanity of Harry K. Thaw for the purpose of having him declared insane and sent to the asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan. That is the wish strongly expressed by Mrs. Wm. Thaw, mother of Harry Thaw, after she had been told that the weight of evidence was such as to preclude acquittal on the ground of justification.

It is stated on what is regarded as good authority that Thaw will take his mother's advice; that Judge Olcott has consented to again resume charge of Thaw's case, and that his firm will supersede that of Mr. Hartridge in conducting the defense.

Alleged Diamond Robbery.

New York, July 18.—A morning paper prints a story today that one of the most astounding diamond robberies in the history of the detective department is being investigated by headquarters men. It embodies the loss of gems, the description of which reads like an Arabian Nights tale. Scores of diamonds, the greater part of them as large as pigeon's eggs, were secured in the robbery and their value is said to be more than $50,000. It is understood, that the jewels were stolen from a woman very well known in New York society, and that the theft occurred either at her town house here or at her villa in Newport. Inspector McLaughlin, of the Central Office, refused today to deny or affirm the report.

The Glidden Tourists.

Hotel Champlain, N. Y., July 18.—The Glidden tourists left here this morning on the run to Montreal, the next stopping place. Only twenty-two of the tourists had clean records when they took their departure from here, ten having fallen down on the hard runs of the last two days from Saratoga to Elizabethtown and from that point here. The run yesterday was over narrow lumber camp roads on which drivers had to be particularly careful to avoid being ditched or sent down a couple of hundred feet. Corduroy, sand, rocks and ruts abounded nearly all the journey and it was not not until Hotel Champlain was ten miles away was the hard macadam road reached.

The Armistice.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 18.—President Roosevelt received a dispatch this morning from United States Charge d'Affairs Brown, at Guatemala, conveying the information that the armistice between Guatemala and Salvador would go into effect at 6 a. m. today. Telegraph Rates.

General Superintendent E. G. Payne, of the Postal Telegraph Company, declared before the Corporation Commission in Richmond yesterday that the adoption of the commission's schedule of rates would ruin his company out of the state. He said the Postal was making no money in the South on account of the cost of maintenance, and that the company had spent in Virginia last year $90,000 more than it received. He declared that if the plan of repeating messages was adopted it would break the company.

Mr. Payne appeared without counsel, saying that he did not believe he would need any, feeling sure that as soon as the Corporation Commission knew the condition, it would recede from its demands on his company.

The Western Union appeared in more formidable array, with General Superintendent J. Levin, Superintendent William Holmes, New York division; A. T. Benedict, attorney, New York; Superintendent L. J. Maxwell, Richmond division; J. P. Stith, chief clerk, and Judge Holladay, local attorney for the company.

Both companies asked for a postponement until August 1 to prepare answers, and this was granted.

The Elks.

At the convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks in Denver yesterday the following officers of the Grand Lodge were elected: Grand Exalted Ruler, Henry A. Melvin, Oakland, Cal.; Grand Esteemed Leading Knight, R. L. Quiesser, Sanville, Ohio; Grand Esteemed Lecturing Knight, W. W. MacClellan, Pittsburg; Grand Trustee, Dr. W. H. Haviland, Butte, Mont.; Grand Secretary, Fred C. Robinson, Dubuque, Iowa; Grand Treasurer, John K. Tener, Charleroi, Pa.

By the adoption of the proposed new constitution three forms of government will be established: Executive, judicial and legislative. This will put all the executive power in the hands of the grand exalted ruler, while the judicial duties, such as the arbitration of all questions pertaining to the order, will be placed in the hands of a board of governors, or similar body. The legislative power, of course, will devolve upon all delegates upon the convention.

Congressman John L. Sullivan has announced his candidacy for the democratic gubernatorial nomination in Massachusetts.

After the Lynchers.

Because of doubts as to the constitutionality of the anti-lynching statue, under which the alleged members of the mob which took John V. Johnston from jail at Wadesboro and hanged him, on May 28, were indicted, the trial took a new phase at Monroe, N. C., yesterday In place of the former indictment, which charged the defendants with violating the statute of 1893, which provides punishment for entering a jail with intent to injure or kill a prisoner, or of conspiring to do so, Solicitor Robinson yesterday afternoon sent to the grand jury a bill embodying three counts, viz: Conspiring to break and enter a jail for the purpose of lynching a prisoner; breaking and entering and killing and lynching.

Under this amended form the grand jury late yesterday afternoon returned true bills against eleven of the twenty-one men under charge of participating in the lynching. The grand jury is still at work upon the cases of the remaining defendants.

Land Sales.

Major E. S. Ruggle has sold his fine estate, "Dissington," in King George county, to Mr. G. Beckwith, of Minnesota. Mr. Beckwith and family will take immediate possession of the property. Mrs. J. O. Chase has sold her handsome estate, known as "Kenmore," near Guineys, in Caroline county, to Mr. Chastine W. Colbert. Terms private. Panic at a Circus.

There was a panic at Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show at Bayonne N. J., yesterday afternoon, when the storm blew down several tents, including the main tent in which the performance was being given. There were about 1,000 persons in the tent many of them women, and when the big stretch of canvas began to collapse the spectators were terror stricken. The circus employes did their best to keep order and save the women and children, who formed a large part of the assemblage. Besides the big tent, several smaller tents in which animals were exhibited were wrecked. There was a stampede among the horses, and the wildest excitement prevailed. Although the main tent did not collapse altogether, it partially gave way in two places, and at one end it sagged and dropped so low as to knock several women off their seats. Several women fainted, and if it had not been for the prompt action of Major Lillie (Pawnee Bill) and the attendants and police there would have been a serious disaster.

Steamers Collide.

During a violent wind and rain storm which swept over Newport News yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock, the Norwegian turret steamship Guernsey dragged anchor and crashed, stern-on, into the starboard side of the battle ship Rhode Island, then at anchor off Chesapeake and Ohio Pier No. 7. The battleship at once got under way and steamed farther out into the harbor for anchorage. Several plates on the side of the Rhode Island are said to have been slightly bent, and a hole was stove in the side of the tramp. The Rhode Island was loading coal before proceeding up the coast to join the Atlantic fleet. It is possible that she will go to the Norfolk navy yard for repairs. The Guernsey is waiting orders from her owners, and it is certain that she will have to be repaired before she goes to sea again.

A., is a prisoner at the house of detention in Washington, on the charge of petit larceny, while her mother, feeble and aged, and her pretty thirteen-year-old daughter Ruth, are depending for their subsistence on strangers at a house on Columbia road. Mr. John Latham, of Manchester, who was painfully injured yesterday during the storm while using a telephone in the railroad yards north of this city and who was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treament, is improving, and it is believed that his sense of hearing will not be destroyed. His wife and father are with him.

Mr. Louis Woodward is at Colonial Beach

Miss Elizabeth Jones is visiting Miss Lulie Hudgins, in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler, have gone to Kingston, N. Y., to spend the summer.

Mrs Wm Wattles has gone to Berryville, where her father, Dr. Lippitt, is seriously ill.

Mrs. Ross T. Elliot and Misses Lollie C. and Mary Harlow left today for the Sweet Chalybeate Springs to spend the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. John Geisendaffer, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. Frank M. Hill, on south Lee street.

Mr. Harry Marvin Spiller, of Richmond, and Miss Rue Dora Adams, of this city, were married in Washington, yesterday by Rev. J. B. McLaughlin.

Miss Lucy Douglas has returned from Warrenton where she has been visiting Miss May Fair for the past week.

The Washington Navy Yard.

The commandant of the Washington navy yard, Captain Leutze, has made a recommendation to acting Secretary Newberry that may be of vital importance to labor organizations throughout the country, for it involves the right of unions arbitrarily to fix the maximum product of each workman for a day.

To secure the full possibilities of the splendid plant at the Washington gun foundry, it is proposed to do one of two things—either put the men on piece work or resort to what is known in the manufacturing world as the "premium system."

This system is based on an admission of the right of the union to say what a workman's maximum output shall be for a given wage, but it permits the man to do more work if he chooses to do so, receiving a proportionate increase in pay. It is urged that the result is to stimulate the men to greater production and to afford a fair opportunity for the ambitious workmen.

The labor unions as represented at the Washington yard have asked for an opportunity to be heard on these propositions, and acting Secretary Newberry has assented,

The Late Frank Hume.

The funeral of the late Frank Hume will take place at the Pro-Cathedral Church of the Ascension, Twelfth street and Massachusetts avenue northwest Washington, tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The pallbearers will be nephews of the deceased, Charles Hume, Thomas L Hume, Graham Hume, Rawlins Hume, James L. Norris, jr., and Erskine M. Sunderland Rev. Clement Brown will conduct the services, assisted by Rev. Thomas W. Cooke, of Dayton, Ky., a son-in-law of Mr. Hume. The interment will be at Ivy Hill Cemetery near this city. Two camps of Confederate Veterans, Robert E. Lee, of Alexandria, and Robert E Lee camp of Washington, will attend the services and will act as a bodyguard. The funeral will be attended by numbers of friends and acquaintances of the deceased from this city.

The Weather.

The heavy rains and thunder and lightning which prevailed in this city and over a large area of the country yesterday did not afford the relief which had been anticipated, nor did they fulfill the forecast of the Weather Bureau. Instead of cooler conditions, which had been promised, the humidity continued intense. The official bulletin sent out at 12 o'clock last night predicted warmer weather. This has been amply fulfilled today.

Charged With Shooting.

Charles Phillips, colored, who was arrested yesterday and locked up, charged with shooting John Lewis during a row in "Petersburg" on Saturday night, but who refused to tell anything about the row, this morning decided to tell what he knew of the occurrence. He said that Edward Tate, a colored youth, shot Lewis while he, Phillips, had hold of Lewis. Officers Bell and Lyles thereupon arrested Tate and locked him up, but the latter denies that he shot Lewis and says Phillips knows nothing about the matter.

Yesterday's Storm.

During the storm yesterday evening lightning struck three times in the neighborhood of Braddock Heights station and killed two fine cows at the dairy farm of R. D. Wolf. The cows were in a lot separated from a herd of about sixty, and were standing between two trees. The trees were untouched, and it is supposed that the lightning struck a barb-wire fence some distance away and that the wire conveyed the current to the animals.

The Electric Franchise.

The joint committee on light, finance and general laws met again last night to consider the bids submitted to Council last week for the purchase of the city's electric franchise. Mr. Hugh Hazelton, an electrician from New York, who had gone over the bids, submitted his report and explained it fully to the committee. After an interchange of views the committee adjourned to meet tomorrow night when it will draw up a report and present it to Council at its next meeting.

Death of Mrs. Driscoll.

Mrs. Alcinda J. Driscoll, widow of C. M. Driscoll, died at her home on south Fairfax street at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The deceased was 68 years old. Mrs. Driscoll had been in feeble health for some time. She was an old and esteemed resident.

Four negroes, two men and two women, arrested by Officers Garvey, Beach, Bell and Henderson, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

Reliance Company Meeting.

A meeting of the Reliance Fire Company was held last night at which arrangements were made for their trip to the State Firemen's Convention to be held in Richmond next month. Mr. Allen L. Thompson was elected vice president and Messrs. A. D. Grimes and W. M. Glasgow delegates, and Messrs. C. E. Pettey and W. H. Bontz, jr., alternates to the committee.

Mr. Lyles was a son of the late Wm. H. Lyles. Several years ago he lost part of one of his hands while at work in a planing mill in this city.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

D. M. Newbold, jr., vs. Capital City Telephone Co.; decree sustaining demurrer.

R. H. Cox, administrator of Alphonso Pomenoto, vs. Southern Railway Co.; suit for damages; jury and verdict for plaintiff for $150.

War About Ended.

Hostilities between Guatemala and Salvador, the sanguinary extent of which has been greatly exaggerated, have ceased, an armistice having been declared.

The United States cruiser Marblehead sails today from La Libertad for San Jose, Guatemala, with United States Minister Merry and the peace commissioners of Salvador and Hondoras to meet the Guatemalan commissioners and fix up peace.

Honduras in the conference will be governed by the action of Salvador, its ally.

The Salvadorans claim to have won every battle of the short war.

Salvadorans say they lost 700 killed and 1,100 wounded and Guatemala 2,500 killed and 3,900 wounded. Of course, these figures are exaggerated.

A report says that Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua last March entered into an offensive and defensive alliance.

President Cabrera, of Guatemala, is reported to be a prisoner in his palace, fearing to go out lest he be assassinated.

It is widely charged in an alleged telegram from Cabrera printed in a Salvadoran "diplomatic" circular that General Ragalado and President Escalson, of Salvador, conspired to procure Cabrera's assassination.

Damage by Lightning.

Fifty nuns at the convent of the Sisters of Mercy, near Merion, Pa., fought with flames which threatened to destroy a portion of the buildings yesterday afternoon during a heavy thunderstorm, and with hand extinguishers kept the fire in check until the arrival of the Narbeth and Cynwyd fire companies. During the storm flames were seen to burst out from the ground floor of the frame boarding-house used by the boys' department. The lightning had struck the building and, running to the ground, struck a gas meter, exploding it. While some of the Sisters carried out bedding and other household effects, others bravely plunged into the smoke-filled rooms and began to play upon the fire with the extinguishers. The fire slowly ate its way toward the upper stories, but before any great damage could be done the firemen had conquered it. Little damage was done in the upper floors and the furniture was returned to the house by the Sisters. The kitchen and one room on the first floor were ruined by the fire and water.

Lightning was particularly severe along the New Jersey coast yesterday afternoon. A bolt hit the flag pole in Ocean Park, and shattered it to within 10 feet of the ground. Four men engaged in laying concrete walks, who had sought shelter under under a roof nearby, were badly stunned, while several hundred men, women and children, who had gathered in the casido, were frantic for a time, believing that the building had been struck.

Salisbury, Md., was visited by a severe storm yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. The steeple of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church was struck by lightning, the slate and metal capping on the steeple was torn down on one side and some pieces of slate were blown 100 feet away.

The Bay State Gas Company.

Boston, July 18.—In the suit brought against Henry S. Rogers by Receiver Pepper, of the Bay State Gas Company, a decision adverse to Rogers has been rendered. In the United States circuit this forenoon Judge Putnam delivered an opinion in which the court holds that upon an accounting being taken of Rogers transactions in Bay State Gas and the other Boston Gas companies, the receiver is entitled to about one half of any profitt that Rogers may be found to have made.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 18.—The movements during the first hour were disappointing to those who tried to bull prices. The room started in selling stocks at the opening and declines that resulted caused an uneasiness in many quarters and induced moderate liquidation of speculative accounts. London sold 20,000 shares on balance, and helped force a reaction.

FINANCIAL

Your Family

Is Dependent Upon You

And you should think of the safety of your money. Every day you hear something that strongly emphasizes the fact that you cannot be too careful in selecting investments for your savings. Any business man will tell you that it is better to be contented with 3 PER CENT. INTEREST and the absolute safety afforded by an account in the SAVINGS DEPARTMENT of this strong institution, than to risk your money in schemes that offer a higher rate and doubtful security. It is useless to attempt to save your money at home; the temptation to borrow from the fund is ever present; the only way to save successfully is to seek the protection and advantages afforded by this well known and conservative institution and deposit your money where it will earn interest compounded—you will then think twice before disturbing the account. Why not save your money? Open an account with us TODAY—it's simple and ONE DOLLAR will start you.

Chased Balloonist With Summons.

Armed with a court summons Constable Alexander Munroe pursued Horace B. Wild, the White City aeronaut, who was mounted on his airship over Chicago yesterday without success.

"I've tried to get service on men who were on railroad trains, steamboats, moving vans, sprees, journeys and autos," said the constable, "but I never chased a man in an airship before."

Munroe reached White City just as Wild's airship went up. The constable "flew along the ground," as he said, believing "what goes up must come down." The suit for which the summons was issued was brought in Justice Richardson's court by Wild's landlord to collect $40 rent of the premises at 6407 Vincennes avenue.

Munroe was on hand at Sixty-ninth and Robey streets when the machine came down in a marsh. He started to read the paper when the machine arose again and took Wild out of earshot. Munroe followed to Sixty-fourth and Western avenue. Here the ship again alighted. Before the constable came up to it Wild had left the machine in the hands of employees and had gone to White City.

Opposition to Salvation Army.

Drums and flags drew a crowd of spectators Monday night to the strangest labor union meeting ever held in Chicago. Under an arc light at the corner of Thirty-ninth street and Cottage Grove avenue union leaders alternately preached the gospel of unionism, sang "industrial" songs and ragtime and collected contributions for the support of the strikers, while 100 or more onlookers marveled at the new methods of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

It was the first gospel meeting arraigned by the labor forces of Chicago. Those in charge of the meeting afterward pronounced it a great success.

With the exception of the fact that the union singers experienced some competition from a Salvation Army band on the opposite corner, the labor crusaders suffered no interruption. The labor "salvationists," however, took advantage of the pauses in the rival exercises.

Proceeding the union gospel programme was a street parade in which transparencies figured. The procession was led by a fife and drum corps and the American flag. The marchers, after traversing the streets in the neighborhood, mounted a platform erected at the Thirty-ninth street corner, where a stereopticon lantern was pressed into service to illustrate the development of trades unions.

Charlemagne's Sarcophagus.

The sarcophagus of Charlemagne was opened yesterday in Aix la Chapelle, Prussia, at Emperor William's wish and in the presence of high dignitaries of the Catholic church and provincial officials for the purpose of examining two precious cloths. These and other relics were found to be in good condition. Three documents were found. The older of the two fabrics dates back to the second half of the tenth century, and contains figures of four elephants. The other is of the twelfth century. The fabrics will be taken to Berlin, with Cardinal Fischer's permission, by Professor Lessing, director of the Royal Museum of Industrial Art, will be photographed and then returned and replaced within the sarcophagus. Emperor William took a lively interest in having the documents removed for examination. The sarcophagus was first opened in the year 1000 by Emperor Otto III.

Jewelers Protect Patrons.

"The general public is not aware of the carefully worked out system by which the large jewelry houses continue to protect their splendid wares long after these have been sold and passed out of their hands," said a detective, discussing daring modern burglaries. "Most large establishments dealing in precious metals and gems have a carefully organized and very efficient detective system, which makes it easy for a patron to recover stolen goods without charge and with little or no delay in the institution of the search. In the safes of these large jewel houses are minute descriptions of every piece of valuable jewelry which goes out from the establishment. Each piece is numbered too. When the gems are missed the patron telephones the shop in which the articles were purchased. At once a special detective, thoroughly acquainted with the business in hand and armed with a detailed description of the jewelry, is hurried to the scene of action. This is without expense to the client."—New York Press.

A Wonderful Grasshopper.

The number of astonishing and often absurd blunders perpetrated by translators is without limit. The first man to translate Cooper's novel "The Spy" into French made numerous errors, among which are these: When the translator came to the word "Locusts," which was the name of the Whartons' residence in the story, he turned to his dictionary and found the rendering of the word to be "Les Sauterelles" (the grasshoppers). He was a trifle puzzled later when he came to the passage in which a dragoon was represented as tying his horse to one of the locusts on the lawn. He had never been in America; but, taking it for granted that the grasshoppers of that country must be of tremendous size, he solemnly informed his readers that the trooper fastened his horse by the bridle to a grasshopper which was standing near the door of the house.

The Last Prize Fight.

Prize fighting, as distinguished from the glove contests of today, has long been banned by law, though it once had aristocratic support. Fights took place to a finish in a roped ring twenty-four feet square pitched on turf in the open. The men stripped to the waist, using bare knuckles, and wrestling was allowed. The last fight for the championship of the world under these London prize ring rules was when John L. Sullivan beat Jake Kilrain in seventy-five rounds July 8, 1889, outside New Orleans, the stakes being $10,000 a side, a side bet of $1,000 a side and the championship belt.—London Answers.

Franklin's Kite Experiment.

Commenting on Benjamin Franklin's kite experiment, which proved that lightning and electricity are the same, a scientist says: "It was one of the most brilliant examples of luck yet recorded. To attempt the extraction of lightning flashes from a lowering sky was almost suicidal. Even at this late day timid persons occasionally fly to feather beds, sit on glass legged chairs or find refuge in rubber boots during thunderstorms. A repetition of Franklin's experiment cost his immediate imitator his life."

New York's First Street Cleaner.

The Dutch housewives of old New York, ever noted for their housekeeping qualities, created the agitation which resulted in the appointment of the first public street cleaner in New York in 1692. He was Laurens Van der Speigle, a baker. His daughter married Rip Van Dam, who afterward became governor of New York, an illustration of the democracy of that day.

Happy Adam.

The first monopolist was Adam. The first consumer was Adam. Therefore Adam had the unique and exquisite pleasure of raising the price of beef to the consumer and the equally great pleasure of kicking at the price put on it by the trust. Adam was the only happy man.—Detroit Times.

The Cure.

Anxious Parent—Doctor, my daughter appears to be going blind, and she is about to be married. Doctor—Let her go right on with the wedding. If anything can open her eyes, marriage will.
